

ForeFamiliesSM...

Additional Solutions at the Time of Need

Many insurance companies can take two-six weeks to pay a life insurance claim. Your family could be required to pay for your funeral and burial services with their money with the hope of being reimbursed when the insurance proceeds are paid.

- Saves your family time and eliminates the worry associated with waiting for the funds to come through.
- Provides peace of mind in knowing that upon the death of the insured, Forethought will promptly pay beneficiaries the full policy amount within 48 hours.*
